

IN SOLIDARITY

Take Action: Support NYC Nurses on Strike!

On Monday, Jan. 12, nearly 15,000 NYC private sector nurses are set to go on strike to protect patient and nurse safety! For months, nurses have been bargaining for fair contracts, but management has refused to settle fair contracts that include enforceable safe staffing ratios, guaranteed healthcare benefits for frontline nurses, and protections from workplace violence.

You can support nurses by taking action to support their fight for the fair contracts that New York's nurses and patients deserve:

Send a message to greedy healthcare CEOs. Email millionaire hospital CEOs to let them know that you are in solidarity with NYSNA nurses who are fighting to protect patient and nurse safety and demand a fair contract now! <https://bit.ly/TellHospitalCEOs>

Donate to the NYSNA Strike Hardship Fund. 100% of contributions will be used to provide aid to NYSNA members who experience financial hardship due to strikes or protected actions. <https://nysna.tfaforms.net/5110966>

Pledge Your Support for Nurses. Nurses work day and night to care for New York. Show you care for nurses by signing the pledge at www.nursescareforny.org/#form

Join the picket line! A strong picket line is essential to winning the strike and puts nurses' resolve and the community's support on display. Picket lines run from 7 am to 7 pm daily, unless otherwise noted, and the busiest times are 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Join us at whichever strike picket location and time is most convenient for you.
