

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS FROM NYSNA MEMBERS

From Bedside to Stage

We are excited to invite NYSNA members to submit articles highlighting your successful execution of evidence-based practice (EBP) changes or future EBP implementation plans. We are particularly interested in projects that demonstrate how clinical practice improvements are being shared, implemented, and sustained across units or institutions.

Even if your project has not yet been implemented, we welcome submissions outlining your plans and goals.

In 350–500 words, please submit a summary including:

- Project outline
- Data and evidence supporting the change
- Implementation strategy (current or planned)
- Outcomes or anticipated outcomes
- Dissemination plan
- We are proud to showcase your efforts and highlight the impact of your evidence-based practice initiatives.

*See additional submission requirements in the next page.

Nursing All-Stars

Calling Recent Graduates with New Academic Degrees!

The Journal of the New York State Nurses Association invites you to share your journey and vision. We want to spotlight how your new degree or advanced knowledge will enhance care delivery and improve health outcomes in your current or future role.

In 500 words or fewer, tell us about your aspirations and the impact you aim to make. Please include a professional headshot along with the signed consent form to release your photograph for publication.

Certification Spotlight

The Journal of the New York State Nurses Association is highlighting Members who have completed a NYSNA Certification Review Course and have passed the respective certification exam. We would love to share your story of what this certification means to you, and how it will impact your career practice goals as a NYSNA nurse. In 50-100 words, tell us your certification story. Please include a professional headshot along with the signed consent form to release your photograph for publication. Please also include your certificate and a short biography.

Letters to the Editor

The Journal of the New York State Nurses Association would like to publish your feedback. If you would like to draft a letter responding to an article published in our most recent publication, your insight and opinion would be welcome. Limit 300-500 words. Research experience is preferred.

Reflect & Resonate

The Journal of the New York State Nurses Association would like to publish your feedback. If you would like to draft a brief reading response to an article published in our most recent publication, your insight and opinion would be welcome. Limit 50-100 words. Research experience is not required.

---

*SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Submit all documents to journal@nysna.org with the following required Information:

- Contact information (email, phone number, mailing address).
- NYSNA Member ID number, if applicable.
- Facility and Primary Work Area.
- Credentials.

As part of the submission process, authors must ensure compliance with all the following items. Submissions that do not adhere to these guidelines may be returned to authors.

- The Journal manuscript must be original.
- It must not be published previously or under review by another journal.
- The topic must align with the journal's aims and scope.
- Research involving humans or animals must have ethical approval from a recognized board.
- You must follow ethical guidelines and should obtain IRB/ IRB exempt approval letter from an Institutional IRB board (if applicable).
- You must disclose conflicts of interest and funding sources.
- The conclusions must be supported by the data.
- Accurate and complete citations are required.
- The study must adhere to ethical research standards by obtaining written authorization for the use of any copyrighted or proprietary instruments.
- All tools should be duly acknowledged and cited in the manuscript.
- APA 7th edition citation, referencing and formatting is recommended.

For questions, please email journal@nysna.org

