FACULTY:

Andrea Capron, BSN, RN, ACLS, TNCC, ENPC, NIHHS, CEN Certified

An experienced Emergency Department nurse leader with more than 20 years of frontline clinical expertise, Andrea is dedicated to advancing the education and professional development of nurses in Emergency Medical care. Her background includes comprehensive experience in emergency nursing, with a proven ability to lead in fast-paced, high-acuity environments.

She is deeply committed to fostering critical thinking, strengthening clinical competency, and preparing nurses to deliver safe, evidence-based, and compassionate emergent care. Throughout her career, she has served as a preceptor for a variety of students —cultivating the next generation of emergency care providers through mentorship and hands-on instruction. Her passion for emergency nursing education continues to drive her work in shaping capable, confident, and high-performing emergency care teams.

Note: The instructor for this program is contracted through Quality Training Solution Corporation (QTSC).
